

York Haven Borough Council Minutes
York Haven, Pennsylvania
February 5,2024

A reorganizational meeting along with a regular meeting was called to order January 2,2024 at 7 PM. Newly elected council member Curtiss Tusing was sworn in, signed copy of residency affidavit and took Oath of Office. He was nominated by Jamie Wolf and second by Bryan Householder with no opposition. Jamie Wolf nominated Bryan Householder to remain president with no oppositions. Also, Robin Isaacson nominated Jamie Wolf to fill the vice president seat with no opposition. Other appointments include CGA Law Firm, CS Davidson, tax collector Sheila Eisele, secretary/treasurer Christine Emig and maintenance employee Russell Tusing with no oppositions. Following the reorganizational appointments were The Pledge of Allegiance and roll call. Present were Mayor Christine Ebersole, President Bryan Householder, Vice President Jamie Wolf, council members Robin Isaacson and Curtiss Tusing. CS Davidson Paul Pope III was also present along with secretary/treasurer Christine Emig. Attorney Evan Gabel and council member Mindy Yoder were absent.

Police Report

The police chief Steve Lutz was not at this meeting however there were 42 for calls for the month.

Engineers Report

Paul Pope III stated that the CDBG has been posted to the website. He stated he needed a resolution for the approval of the CDBG. Robin Isaacson made a motion for resolution for 2024-01 and was second by Jamie Wolf with no oppositions.

Solicitors Report

Attorney Evan Gable was out of town at the time of this meeting so there was nothing new to report.

Ordinance Officer

Curtiss Tusing stated that the car on 2nd Street that was to be moved is still sitting there. The resident will have until January 15,2024 then further action will be taken.

Citizens

John and Judy Prezenszy who are volunteers for the Red Land Library brought newsletter and information on what they have to offer. Also, Stephanie attended meeting to express her concern about Penn Waste leaving garbage cans on street so resident's can not park. This will be addressed with Penn Waste.

Minutes

Robin Isaacson made a motion to approve minutes and was second by Curtiss Tusing with no opposition.

Treasurer Report

Robin Isaacson made a motion to approve minutes and was second by Curtiss Tusing with no opposition.

Mayors Report

Mayor Christine Ebersole stated council member Mindy Yoder will be returning in February.

Borough Building

The borough was presented paperwork from the Northeastern History Center lawyer. This is due to open in the library 6/24/24. Council will have Attorney Evan Gable look over this paperwork before signing. Robin Isaacson volunteered to attend a meeting in February to learn more about this service.

Streets

Curtiss Tusing stated the lights on the borough truck are now fixed.

Playground

Nothing new to report.

Unfinished Business

Council stated they will wait until Mindy Yoder returns in February to get the Quick Books up dated and hire an IT person.

New Business

Jamie Wolf motioned and Robin Isaacson second to make the two open council seats vacant so applications can be taken to have these filled. Citizens can come to next meeting if interested.

Jamie Wolf made a motion to adjourn meeting at 7:50 PM and was second by Robin Isaacson with no opposition.