Once you have submitted your complaint, the Codes Compliance Official will visit the property to inspect for the alleged violations noted on the complaint form. If the Codes Compliance Official is already currently working on a previous complaint on the subject property, your complaint will be added to the pending action(s).

Once the Codes Compliance Official has inspected the subject property, one of two actions will take place:

1. If the Codes Compliance Official finds a violation, then a violation will be issued.
2. If the Codes Compliance Official determines that subject property has not violated Borough Code and that the complaint is not valid, a $110.00 per hour charge will be invoiced to a complainant for the Codes Compliance Official's time.
